Exhibition conditions Jungkunst

The non-profit association Jungkunst promotes diverse young Swiss art and has been organising the festival of the same name in Winterthur since 2006. Every year, the curatorial team selects 20 artistic positions from all over Switzerland, giving them the opportunity to showcase their work in the field of fine arts to a wide audience. The exhibition is accompanied by a supporting programme.

Services provided by Jungkunst
- CHF 500 compensation per artistic position, CHF 750 for collectives/duos
- Large platform and mediation
- Media presence
- Personal support from the curatorial team before and during the exhibition
- Insurance for the exhibited works
- Exhibition infrastructure (walls, hanging materials, lighting, etc.)
- Catering during the festival, set-up and dismantling

Artists' contribution
- Installation concept for their own work in collaboration with the curators
- Transport, set-up and dismantling are carried out independently by the artists
- Technical equipment (projectors, sound, etc.) will be organised by the artists

Participation and conditions are set out in a written contract between both parties.
